The Yates-Martin Case.

WASHINGTON April 17.—The Yates-Martin Case North Carolina) contested election case taken up by the election committee of the House to day, and Southard, concluded his argument in behalf of the contestan.s. Mr. Yates' arguments for the contestants will be begun on Monday.

arrives in London.

LONDON, April 17.—A dispatch says that De Lesseps has arrived. He is not discouraged by the cold shoulder turned to him in the U. S. He intends to go soon to London, Manchester, Birmingham, Edinburgh, Glasgow, and Dublin, to promote his Canal enterprise. He will afterwards visit Belgium and Holland.

Ages of Candidates and Presidents.
Charlotte Democrat.

The ages of the prominent candidates for the Presidency at the present time, and the ages of the several Presidents at the times when they came into that high office, are as follows: Blaine touched fifty on the last of January. Grant will be fifty-eight this month. Sherman will be fifty-seven in May. Washburne was sixty-three in September. Conkling was fifty in October. Garfield is in his forty-ninth year. Bayard was fifty-one in October. Thurman reached his sixty-eighth birthday in November. Hendricks was sixty in September. Tilden was sixty-six last February; and in the same month Gen. Hancock was fifty-five. Seymour will be seventy in May. Washington was in his fifty-seventh year when he was first elected, and had just entered his sixty-sixth year when he left office. John Adams was sixty-one when he was elected; Jefferson fifty-seven; Madison in his fifty-eighth year; Monroe in his fifty-ninth; and John Quincy Adams in his fifty-eighth. Jackson was sixty-one when chosen the first time, and therefore sixty-five when re-elected, while he had reached his seventieth year when he quitted office. Van Buren was fifty-four and Harrison sixty-seven when they were elected; while Tyler, when he took office, had just passed his fifty first birthday. Polk was elected on almost precisely his forty-ninth birthday. Taylor was not quite fifty-eight when elected, and Fillmore was in his fifty first year when he succeeded him. Pierce had not yet completed his forty-eighth year when he was elected, and he was the junior of all who have taken the Presidential chair, except Gen. Grant. Mr. Buchanan was elected in his sixty-sixth year; Lincoln in his fifty-second and fifty-sixth year; while Johnson succeeded in his fifty-seventh year. Mr. Hayes was fifty-five years old when he went into the Presidential office.

He was evidently a "tenderfoot," but as he stopped before an old miner and held out a piece of micaceous granite for his inspection he made a strong effort too look as if he had been born with a contempt for civilization, and that the feeling had been steadily growing on him ever since. "What do you make this out to be?" he asked, indicating the specimen with a nod. "Humph!" was the expressive answer. "Gold quartz or carbonates?" The "honest miner" turned it over in his hand indifferently, took out his knife, and picked at it for a while, and then said: "Got much of it?" "Thousands of tons," answered the other, eagerly. "How much do you suppose she'll run?" "Can't tell nuthin' without an assay." "But you can guess, can't you—you can guess?" "Oh! yes," answered the barnacle; "anybody kin guess; but a guess is liable to be extravagant. Now, I shall say—but, mind ye, I may go over the mark—I should s-a-a-y (turning the specimen over again and holding it up to the light)—I should s-a-a-y that if ye kin save the gold in this and catch the silver, and not waste the lead, it might run about—well, about $2 to the county.

He'd Jine Anything.

A New Hampshire woman has a husband who is addicted to joining secret societies. One of her exasperated outbursts is thus reported by the Manchester Mirror: "Jine! He'd jine anything. There can't nothing come along that's dark and sly and hidden, but he'll jine it. If anybody should get up a society to burn his house down, he'd jine it just as soon as he could get in, and if he had to pay to get in, he'd go all the suddener."

Planitary Sensation.
Providence Journal.

Those who study the stars will have plenty of occupation in the coming years. The index hand on the dial-plate points to events of momentous import. The four great planets reach their nearest point to the sun more nearly together than they have done almost 2,000 years. It is not unreasonable to suppose that with their strong pull, and pull altogether, they will create some unusual disturbance in the chaotic elements that make up the sun's fiery mass. The forces of the new-spot eyele are now in active operation, and those who have closely watched the influence of the solar disturbance on climatic conditions predict a hot summer from the heat-waves that follow the commencement of the tremendous solar outbreaks. The hidden chambers of the great pyramid have given forth in oracular fashion momentous prophecies for 1881, to the few disciples who have faith in their teachings, and astrologers cast strange horoscopes from the unusual planetary combinations.

TILDEN'S PHYSICAL CONDITION.

Graphic Picture of the Democratic Candidates He Appears To-day.

The New York correspondent of the Boston Herald thus depicts the great Democratic claimant:

"The painful physical condition of Mr. Tilden, of which the public knows but comparatively little, was an impressive emphasis to the almost inaudible utterances which so feebly fell from the old gentleman's lips. In the pitiful wreck which moves with such difficulty and moderation around the spacious and brilliant mansion of Gramercy Park to-day, there are few visible traces to remind one of the active and buoyant old gentleman who directed the details of the lively and eventful campaign of three years ago. The intellect seems to remain strangely intact, but the waning physical powers show unmistakably that Mr. Tilden will never administer the difficult duties of the office of President of the United States. The declaration of the gentleman himself is not necessary to assure the country of this, for the unrelenting laws of nature will prove a negative to all such calls which a friendly convention or an enthusiastic majority of voters may have in contemplation for him. While the old gentleman's failure of physical powers has been most notable and rapid within a year, yet he holds on to the charms incident to a busy and active life with a determination that is most remarkable. He goes down town nearly every day, and is very attentive in giving directions concerning his vast business investments, which he assured the correspondent involved millions and millions of dollars. Both of his hands are palsied, one of them seemingly withered as well as deformed and useless, while with the other he is barely able to hold a pen long enough to affix his name to such documents as necessarily require his signature. His whole system trembles violently at all times and it seems an absolute certainty that the disease is slowly but surely possessing the entire body. The "obliquitous eye," as it has been often termed by his opponents consists of a drooping or partially fallen lid, which more than half obscures one of the organs of vision, giving a distinctive look rather than an appearance the opposite of dropossessing. His voice, as before intimated, is the feebiest of the feeble, and in conversation he is compelled to sit almost in contact with his listener in order that the almost incoherent utterances may be thoroughly understood. Such, in brief, is the precarious physical condition of the man who is such a terror to the army of Democratic politicians aspiring to the Presidency. He is but a couple of months rising sixty-six years of age.

THE TRIALS OF AN ENGAGED GIRL.

The Chaff and the Snubs to which she is Subject--A Lover as a Nuisance.
Home Journal.

After all, the yoke of marriage is an apparatus that should sit on two pairs of shoulders; and there is nothing very seemly in seeing a girl wait to wear her own part of it until it has been nicely padded with quilted satin. Looking at the matter from a less elevated point of view, long engagements are rather tiresome in restricting the liberty of girls. Miss Jenny, who is going to marry Mr. Simpson as soon as that hopeful young man gets a living, is obliged in the meanwhile to deny herself many pleasures, lest Simpson should take offense. She must eschew balls; she must take care that nobody makes love to her; and for this purpose she is obliged to let all chance comers be speedily informed of her engagement. Unhappily, the symbolism of rings is always unregarded, else the chance comers might discover the fact for themselves by looking at the second finger of Miss Jenny's left hand. If Jenny has no sisters to talk of her betrothal, and if her mother does not accept timely hints to mention it on every necessary occasion, the girl is rather embarrassed for words in which to convey the news delicately to strangers. She cannot allude to Mr Simpson as "Johnny"—that would be too familiar; she cannot speak of him as "Simpson," for this would sound strange; but if she refers to him frequently as "Mr. Simpson," strangers might draw undesirable inferences from her apparent familiarity with a person thus coldly specified. Then the engaged girl has to put up with a great deal of chaff, which is only pleasing for awhile, and afterwards becomes intolerable. The trials of matrimony are frequently commended to her impatient attention by way of paternal rebuke: "Ah, my dear, you will find out that I was right when you are a wife yourself!" and so forth; or a snub is put upon her too hasty wish to consider herself free by the reminder that she is not married yet, and that there is many a slip between cup and lip. Sometimes Simpson is actually held up to her as a bogey: "My dear, I don't think Mr. Simpson would quite approve of your wearing that cherry ribbon;" "Jenny, dear, I think Mr. Simpson would be sadly grieved if he heard you express those opinions," or "Jenny, I am sure Mr. Simpson would not think it proper that you should play croquet with Capt. Mallet." There is enough in all this to make a girl sit down and scream.

An Edgecombe girl jilted her lover
For shingling his farm with "morgans" all over,
Then told him to put in a big crop of clover.
Raise hogs and sheep,
And some thing to eat.
When he did that,
He might hang up his hat
In her front parlor—take her, moreover.

A Blind Crowd.

The subject of color blindness came up at a ferry-dock saloon the other day and an old ex captain offered to test the eyes of several sailors present. He got off his stool, laid down his pipe, and began;

"Now, boys, what color is my nose?"

"White!" they replied in chorus. It was red as a beet, but they were after a drink.

"Correct," said the captain. "This convinces me that your eyes are all right as to the color of white. What is the color of my hair?"

"Gray."

"Correct again, except the sandy spots You'll all pass on white and gray. What is the color of that dog out there?"

"Black."

"So it is. And the color of this chair is what?"

"Red?"

"And of this?"

"Blue?"

And what is my general appearence? That is, if you saw me forty rods off how would you describe me?"

"As a perfect gentleman," was the ready reply.

The thought they had him then. He started for the bar, but haulted and finally sat down and had no more to say for a long ten minutes. After they had despaired of getting any beer at his expense and were about to go out he suddenly said:

"Ah! boys, one more question. If I should treat this crowd what would be the color of the liquid?"

"It would be the color of beer," they hopefully shouted.

"Blind as bats—worst case I ever saw!" he mumbled, as he took his hand from his pocket. "It would be exactly the color of ice-water!"

A Headless Corpse.

Mysterious Murder in New Hampshire.—Friday afternoon, while three little girls were gathering May flowers in the woods at Durham, N, H., they discovered the headless body of a young man nearly nuder. An investigation showed that a brutal murder had been committed, but by whom is as yet a mystery. The body was found lying face downward at full length, with both arms resting underneath, and only covered with a shirt. The right arm was severed from the body at the shoulder, and the head had also been cut off, and has not as yet been found. About three hundred feet away the coat, pantaloons and vest were found; and in another direction, some twenty five feet distant, a linen collar, cap, nectie and shirt bosom, which had been torn completely off. There were three gold studs with garnet settings in the shirt bosom. The top part of the skull partly denuded of hair, and the murderer's oak club, about three feet long, were also found in a little clearing. It is evident that here the murder was committed. Several pieces of skull and brain were scattered about, and torn clothing, all indicating the victim's struggle for life. The authorities are carefully investigating the matter. Great excitement prevails in the neighborhood.

AFFAIRS IN FRANKLIN.

THE CITIZENS EXERCISED ABOUT A COTTON FACTORY.

Some Statistics Relative thereto--- Professor J. Abner Harrell, of the Weldon Ticket---Other Matters.

Correspondence of the News.

FRANKLINTON, N. C., April 15.—The recent cold weather has destroyed the fruit crop except apples and pears, and has also materially injured wheat that had jointed. Benjamin I. Holden, who had the finest wheat in the county, is a loser to some extent by the frosts, yet his crop is good for 2000 bushels. He is one of Franklin's model farmers and has 200 acres ready for cotton. His hands attend to their business with the regularity of clock-work and the results are second to those of no farmer in the county.

It is probable that the Reds will not put forth any county candidate this year as the handwriting on the wall is plainly Democratic. It has ever been close between the parties, but since a number of the male denizens turned either sensible or foolish and exodusted to Indiana the colored "gemmen" are now a hopeless m'nority

The cotton factory movement is creating a great deal of interest here and many are beginning to offer their subscript ons in earnest. We learn that one gentleman in New York City will take a $10,000 stock in it. It is remarkably strange that while in Connecticut there are 111 factories; in Massachusetts 191; in Pennsylvania 138; in Rhode Island 139, all located hundreds of miles from the cotton producing sections that people in North Carolina should ask, "will a cotton factory pay." It seems reasonable that any well balanced mind might come to the just conclusion that if cotton factories did not pay these northern men would not ship cotton from here for the purpose of manufacturing it into fabrics, for if it did not pay factory after factory would not be built up north, and those already built would be allowed to remain idle until general labefacation crumbled them into dust. In 1870 Arkansas had two cotton factories, Louisiana four, Mississippi five, Texas four. These are four great cotton growing States that manufacture scarcely any of the material, and it reminds us of what we heard of Texas, the great cattle raising State, viz.: That they buy butter and condensed milk from the north while there are thousands of the finest milch cows in the world browsing right in their midst. But such is life. In 1870 North Carolina had 33 factories, with 39,877 spindles and 1,45r operatives turning out a product valued at $1,345,052, making $34 to the spindle and $925 70 to the hand. In 1876 North Carolina produced 210,000 bales of cotton which if it had been manufactured at home would not only have been of great benefit to the State but would have built up communities and given employment to thousands who rusted in idleness. Each bale would have made from 1,350 to 7,200 yards of cloth, but the most of this went north to be manufactured into cloth and returned here for you to make cotton to buy. Let's say that the manufacturer makes only $50 on the bale of cotton. then out of the 210,000 bales made in 1876 there were $10,500,000 that might have been made in this State by its manufacture. The cotton factory is a sine qua non in this cotton producing section.

Mr. J. Abner Harrell, editor of the Weldon Railroad Ticket, was in town last week. He has traveled much of late, especially in the west. The lowest priced farm laborer that he saw was working in Ohio for 80 cents per day. While at Pittsburg, Penn., he saw skilled artisans getting $12 per day. Prof. Harrell is quite loquacious, instructive and entertaining. He says that his mercantile experience in Henderson disgusted him with the business, for he soon found that he was like a peach, but not the one that grows large, gets ripe, falls off and burst, but like the one that the longer it stays the smaller it gets. He says that if a man eats corn bread and pork that he will have corn bread and hog ideas, and if he eats chicken he will have chicken ideas, and the natural sequence would be that the man could accomplish nothing great, but to distinguish himself, a man should eat good victuals. At this juncture in the conversation, J G. Staunton broke in and said that he was going to his store and buy everything good to eat that he should see for sale in the street that day, for he had had very poor ideas lately. Professor Harrell still further said that when he desired to accomplish anything great that he would eat something that readily assimilated with the system, and produced brain, for instance he would eat oysters and retire at 8 p. m., regularly for some seven or eight days. Mr. Harrell says that he has long been convinced,

It is not birth, nor rank, nor state,
It's get up and git that makes men great

At this point, Mr. Thomas Levister stepped in and astounded the natives with his scorpion tale. He said that when a school-boy, that a red-headed scorpion was discovered and knocked from a crack in the school-house, and that he gathered a board to strike it with, but the school-children gathered around so closely that he could not do so without hitting some of them, so he laid the board on the scorpion and the teacher who weighed two hundred pounds, jumped on it and the reptile crawled across the floor with him on its back. The conversation here lagged, and each one departed to his respective place. J. W. WALKER.

DEATH OF ELDER C. B. HASSELL.

The Tranquil End of a Noble Life.

Tarboro Southerner.

From an esteemed correspondent, "G. C. L.," of Williamston, N. C., we learn that Elder C. B. Hassell died at his home in that place on Sunday morning, 11th inst., between 1 and 2 o'clock, in the 71st year of his age, after an illness of seven weeks. This is a simple announcement, yet none has so stirred the profoundest emotions of sympathy and sadness, not only in Martin county, but throughout this entire section since the demise of Judge Biggs. For at least forty years of his long and useful life, he was a minister of the Gospel in the Primitive Baptist faith. The light of his Christian life was shed abroad on all around him, and on all with whom he came in contact. Thus has ended a life well rounded up in perfection, at least as much perfection as it is possible for a human being to attain. Thus has passed away a man, whom to know was to love, and the kind of love that blended into simple admiration and confidence. His life work was to preach the gospel and do good unto men, and his efforts were crowned with a success vouchsafed to few. His amiability and perfect equanimity shone conspicuously forth at all times and under all circumstances. We heard a prominent merchant of Tarboro say, speaking of his Christian character and self-control, "I lived in his family and clerked for him for three years, during very early manhood, and I never knew his imperturbability to be ruffled in the slightest degree."

His Christian graces shone forth on all occasions. He was a powerful preacher, powerful in his persuasiveness, in the logic of his sermons, in the arranging of scriptural quotations, and analogous reasoning to sustain his views. But his greatness and his goodness illumed his family circle, and the firesides of his friends, where the only true test can be applied to the virtues of a follower of Christ, and a crucible out of which we so often find dross coming, instead of the bright metal that dazzled us. So great was the confidence of his fellow citizens in his honesty and strict integrity, that he could at any time have filled any office within their gift, but he only consented, after urgent solicitation, to occupy a seat in the Convention of 187-, defeating therefor Congressman J. J. Martin. His record in that body was proud in its patriotism, and as a debater he had few equals. He leaves a widow and several grown children.

As a comfort and consoling reflection to the many mourners's eyes, whose tears will bedew this announcement, we are permitted to quote from a private letter, written to Capt. R.C. Brown by Elder Sylvester Hassell, son of the deceased, conveying the sad intelligence: "He tried to talk till almost the very last, but only a little he said could be understood. His most frequent expression was "All right! All right!" He was resigned to go, and was perfectly confident of entering into rest. Death had no terrors for him. Without a gasp, a struggle, or a groan, he sweetly fell asleep in Jesus, near 1 o'clock Saturday night, (meaning Sunday morning.) Sunday morning a placid and heavenly smile rested upon his countenance. We are assured that his glorified spirit has ascended to the Paradise of God."

How beautiful and victorious a death! is the only comment we can make. On Monday he was buried at Skewarky, and may the gentle winds as they breathe a swe t requiem through the grass that covers his grave, whisper his eulogy into our ears, and admonish us to emulate his virtues.

THE Richmond Dispatch one of the ablest papers in Virginia says:

"The Grant men in Virginia hope to bull-doze the Staunton Convention by representing Grant's popularity in the North to be overwhelming. We call upon the dispirited Blaine men to make fight against all attempts to sell out to the Grant-Mahone coalition."

THE Charlotte Democrat makes the following prediction regarding the future of that city:

"The day is not far distant when Charlotte will be in direct Railroad communication with Pittsburg, Pa. The new Road is now being built from Pittsburg this way, and is called the "Pittsburg Southern." It looks as if we will have, in the early future, twice as many Railroads running to this point as Atlanta has, and three or four times the number of any other Southern city.

And we have good reason for believing that the Midland Road will soon be extended from Danville in this direction."

WE clip following from our sprightly cotemporary the Evening Visitor These are pertinent questions and Keynotey in their nature. We have dipped our pen in ink so many times in the cause of internal improvements that 'tis hard for us to write on any other subject.

How much would the assessment of lands be increased along the route if a Railroad from Raleigh to Rocky Mount should be built. How much would the assessment of town property on Fayetteville St. in Raleigh be increased if we had a new and handsome Court House! How much safer would the property holders of Raleigh feel, and what a source of luxury would be added to our population, if a supply of good and pure water was always at hand? Then give us the proposed Railroad, the new Court House and the Water Works. Ponder these questions, and answer through the Visitor if you wish.

The Street Cow.
Tarboro Southerner.
(Affectionately inscribed to Raleigh Reporters.)

'Twas just about midnight dreary,
As reporters, weak and weary,
Wandered home, their day's work o'er;
When all at once they heard a chawing,
As of some thing, cotton gnawing.
Grawing fast and wantiug more,
"Tis a street cow," then they muttered,
As through th' mud they slowly splutered,
"A city street cow—
Nothing more."

They sought their couches restless, tossing,
Lethe's stream, by no means crossing,
Dreampt they, city fathers, to tears,
had op'd the door.
No, still they heard the quiet munching.
That sounded as of cotton crunching,
Voracious-sweeping all before,
"Is this the cow that we've derided:
With poignant pen ourselves we've prided?"
The city street cow—
Nothing more:

Then woke they with start and shiver,
As if the'd forgot to pad their liver,
"We want Nepenthe from this everlasting bore.
We'll write and fight the city fathers,
We'll have no more these blasted bothers!
By the heavens that bend above us,
By the God we all adore,
Banish the street cow forevermore."
"Yes," chorused all,
"Forevermore."

OUR COUNTY LETTERS.

NEWS FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENTS.

Public Meeting in Transylvania--Miscellaneous Items from Granville-

TRANSYLVANIA.

BREVARD, April 13th.—There was a large meeting here to-day. The meeting was presided over by Captain John Mills, and W. Gash, Esq., acted as Secretary. Speeches were made by Col. Taylor, Senator from this district and by John Paxton, Esq., the representative from this county. K. Elias, Esq., was loudly called for and came forward and made a speech. The following resolutions were adopted without a dissenting voice.

Resolved, That we endorse the votes of our Senator and Representative in favor of the sale of the Western, N. C. Railroad, and congratulate the chief Executive on the success of this undertaking.

Resolved, That the chairman appoint five delegates to represent this county in the State Convention, and that they be also authorized to represent us in selecting an elector for this district, and that Col. T. W. Taylor be our proxy if the delegates do not attend.

Resolved, That Thomas J. Jarvis and James L. Robinson have shown themselves worthy of the support of our people, and that our delegates be instructed to support them for Governor and Lieutenant Governor of the State.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Hendersonville Courier, Asheville Citizen and the Raleigh papers.

W. GASH, Secretary. JOHN MILLS, Chairman.

GRANVILLE.

WILTON, April 15.—The weather is fine now--but recent frosts have killed plums and peaches besides damaging a great deal of wheat that had jointed.

Trade is never lively in this section at this season of the year but it is as good now as it generally is in April.

Cupid seems to have ceased bending his bow and shooting his heart-piercing darts at the marriageable ones just now.

The health of the Granvillians was never better and there are but few besides the young for death to pray upon for nearly all the aged slept with their fathers last fall and winter.

Court is in session now at Oxford but there have been no cases of general interest tried.

Politicians are beginning to arm and button-hole their wished for constituents. At no late day John W. Betts may be heard putting forth his claim to the sheriffalty among his Republican cohorts. John tried it once and got tacked to Col. I. J. Young's coat tail for two or three years in the revenue department, but whether he will be as successful this time the near future alone can evolve.

The Rev. Mr. McDuffy, a student at Wake Forest College, will hold religious services at Brassfield's church next Saturday and Sunday.

Real estate is not changing hands much now, only a few sales by administrators, but as telephone lines of communication are going up over various sections of the county they may increase both value and sales.

At a colored hop near Townesville last Thursday night two kinky pated gentlemen, named Sam Revis and Jo. Daniel, amused themselves at fisticuff for awhile about the preference shown Revis by an ebony-hued maiden named Mag Lawton. Daniel came out second best with an ugly nose and bad eyesight.

While Mr. Edward Cash was moving a log last week on the bank of Knapp-of-Reids creek, he discovered a mass of something that looked snaky. Upon examination he found a den of thirty-four large copper-belly snakes. They were quite lively but he was Hercules enough for the occasion.

GREENE.

WILLOW GREENE, N. C. April 15th.—The weather is now spring like, but it has been cold for the past week, snow last Thursday. Farmers are almost ready to commence planting cotton.

Mr. Joshua Frizzle died Friday last, he was a native of Greene county, age at out seventy.

In the act to provide for the sale of the State's interest in the Western North Carolina Railroad Company, sec. 7th says the grantees or their assigns shall pay to said State for and in consideration of the services of said convicts one hundred and twenty-five dollars per capita per annum, which shall include the board, clothing, maintenance, supervision, and all other expenses, payable quarterly. For the information of many people please state in your next paper who is to board and clothe the convicts, Best & Co., or the State of North Carolina.

Your correspondent in company with Colonel M. R Crawford of Wayne, made a visit of inspection to the Negro Insane Asylum which is located in Wayne county, near Goldsboro, on last Friday, was shown all the vast building by Col. Tom Kenedy, the proficient steward of the institution. The workmen were about completing the house which is an honor to the State and the county in which it is located.

E. H. H.

A good many prominent men who have heretofore affiliated with the Readjusters have now become nauseated with Mahone's party and say they will follow him no further. In this regard the Philadelphia Record most truly says:

"The proposed coalition between the Republicans and the Repudiationists in Virginia, if ratified by the consent of Republicans out of the State, will be a most damaging incident. Neither of the parties to such a bargain can put any confidence in the other."

A Joke on Senator Edmunds.

It is related that a few days ago Judge Mackey, (republican,) from South Carolina, was sitting in the gallery of the Senate, when a sharp-faced, razor-strap-looking fellow said to him: "Mister, can you point out to me that infernal Hamburg murderer, Butler, of South Carolina?" "Certainly," said the polite judge. "Don't you see that bald-headed man," pointing to Senator Edmunds; "well, that is Butler of South Carolina." The eyes of the Yankee were lighted up with indignation as he replied, "Yes, I could have picked him out of a thousand"—adding a good deal that was not complimentary to the distinguished Vermonter. When Senator Hampton told this joke on Mr. Edmunds the latter laughed heartily, and remarked that it was a compliment to be taken for so handsome a man as Gen. Butler.

SWEAT PALAVER.

The Duke of America Expresses His Feelings in Memphis.

MEMPHIS, April 13.—General Grant and party arrived this morning at 9 o'clock by the Mississippi and Tennessee railroad. They were met at the depot by a delegation of the prominent citizens, headed by Dr. D. T. Porter, president of taxing district. The latter, in a brief speech, welcomed General Grant in the name of all the citizens of Memphis, without distinction of race, nationality or party, as one of the greatest military chieftains of any age or country as twice chosen chief executive of the republic, and as a highly distinguished private citizen, "and may we not," he said, "through you, sir, thank the people of the United States for the princely charity that flowed in upon us from every quarter through three epidemics in such unabated measure as to mitigate as much as might be, the terrors of that frightful pestilence which devastated our fair city and filled our hearts with sorrow." General Grant responded in a few appropriate words.

Half past 11 the procession consisting of military companies, fire department and various societies with bands of music escorted General Grant to the court-house square, where Colonel Josiah Patterson delivered the welcome address, eulogizing the general as a generous soldier, who in accepting the surrender of the Confederate army had paused midway between victory and oppression and inaugurated the policy of magnanimity and justice which exacted nothing from the vanquished but obedience to the laws of the common country. General Grant responded as follows:

"I can say to my friends in the south that there has never been a day when I was not as anxious for their prosperity as they themselves I see evidences of a better feeling between the citizens of the different sections of our country, which I hope will continue to grow. I thank you, Mr. Chairman and citizens of Memphis, for this reception."

A public levee was then held, and a vast throng, estimated at 15,000, surged about the grand stand, anxious to shake the General by the hand. The military companies at 1 o'clock escorted the general to his hotel.

The Suit Against Gen. Sheridan.
New York Post.

The suit of James A. Whalen against Gen. Phil. Sheridan, at the trial of which so many people attended, has been appealed to the United State Supreme Court by Judge Blatchford's writ. The plaintiff's claim is for $420,000, the value of the personal property on the large Kilona plantation in Louisiana, from which he was ejected by Gen. Sheridan's military order. His counsel assert that the General had no right to issue such orders, as peace was re-established in the South, and the courts, which alone had jurisdiction, were open.

The Earl of Dunmore, who owns a property of 30,000 acres in Scotland, and is one of the best known cattle breeders in the United Kingdom, is on his way to Helena, Montana, where he intends starting a ranch on a very extensive scale. He intends buying several thousand head of cattle in Texas and having them transported to his ranch during the coming summer. It is his further intention to import two or three hundred bulls of his own favorite breed, and he is sanguine of raising a stock of cattle second to none. His ultimate plan is to ship beef to England preserved by the refrigerating process.

Too Anxious.
Cape Fear Banner.

It is apparent that our anxious friend Tilden is too lavish in the expenditure of his millions to secure nomination to the Presidency. He and John Kelly, of Tammany fame, are at loggerheads, and each is trying to outvie the other in making preparations to entertain and control the delegates to the National Convention This is an important reason why Tilden should not receive the nomination—he is to anxious, and persistently seeks the office. Not so with the pure and incorruptible statesman Seymour. He does not seek the office, but is willing to serve for the good of his country and the welfare of his party. Seymour & Hendricks should will and must be the ticket.

A curious case of forgery is that of Dr. Whiteford in England. Once Charles Shurety was under sentence of death in Newgate prison, the day for the execution being fixed for January 5. Dr. Whiteford, who interested himself in the case, was convinced that Shurety was an innocent man, and that if more time was given him he would be able to prove his innocence. The result was that on January 5 the warden at Newgate who had the execution of Shurety in charge received only a few minutes previous to the time appointed for the execution a stay of proceedings purporting to be signed by the Under Secretary of State. This document, upon examination, was shown to be forgery, executed by Dr. Whiteford, purely from philanthropic motives. The case is being prosecuted, and the Doctor is likely to spend a few weeks with his friends Shurety in Newgate.

Gov. Davis, of Maine, in his last-day proclamation, devoutly says: "This custom has come down to us from our fathers On this day they sought forgiveness of sins, and carried all their wants to God in prayer. Let us, with sins as numerous, wants as great, and burdens as heavy, ask, as they did forgiveness and help from the only true source. Let us ask God for wisdom; for honesty of purpose; for peace and plenty; for State and national prosperity; for the success of every effort in behalf of free government; and let us humble ourselves before Him and acknowledge His providence in all the events of life.

The life of Napoleon III. was attempted five times to Louis Philippe's thirty. In 1852, the infernal machine at Marseilles; in 1855, the pistols of Pianori; the attempt of Bartoldi and Tibaldi in 1857; the Orsini bombs in 1858; Grego and others in 1863; and amid all this, while many people were killed and mutilated, the Emperor himself received not a scratch, but died at Chiselhurst, attended by five first-rate physicians, and with every comfort surrounding him.

WASHINGTON.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE 46TH CONGRESS.

The Geneva Award Bill---It Consumes the Entire Day in the Senate--- The Indian Bureau.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Butler presented the petition of two hundred citizens of Savannah River Valley, for an appropriation to improve that river. Referred. Baldwin, from the Committee on Commerce, reported adversely on the bill to authorize the Richmond and Southwestern Railway Company to build bridges across the Pamunky and Matapany rivers, and it was indefinitely postponed. Call introduced bills for the relief of certain purchasers of public land and for the erection of public buildings at Key West, Fla. Referred. At the expiration of the morning hour, the Senate resumed the consideration of the Geneva Award bill, and devoted to it the remainder of the day. Messrs. Jones, Conkling, Thurman and Carpenter discussed the question whether the underwriters are entitled to a share of the award. The leading speeches were made by Jones and Carpenter. Pending the conclusion of the latter's argument, the Senate went into an executive session, and when the doors were reopened adjourned until Monday.

Senator Edmonds from committe on private land claims reported averse on bill to abrogate power of Executive officers of the United States in allowing indemnity locations or scrip for confirmed unsatisfied private land claims under the law of 1858, and to vest that power in the courts of the United States. Indefinitely postponed.

A bill was introduced in the Senate by Senator Call to-day appropriates one hundred thousand dollars to erect a public building at Key West, Fla., for the accommodation of the Custom House Post and other Federal offices.

Senator Call's bill for the relief of certain purchasers of public lands supposed to be subject to sale by the Government have been purchased and paid for and the certificate of entry received by one of the party and assigned to another. The Governments shall refund the money if for any reason it is unable to convey title to lands so purchased and assigned.

HOUSE.

The House was engaged in the disposition of miscellaneous business. The Senate bill has been passed removing the political disabilities of Roger A. Pryor.

On motion of Mr. Dibrell, of Tennessee, a bill was passed authorizing the Secretary of War to turn over a certain condemned cannon to the Governor of South Carolina.

The morning hour having been dispensed with the House went into the Committee of the Whole on the Indian appropriation bill. An amendment was offered by Mr. Hooker, of Mississippi, striking out the section appropriating $10,000 for the expenses of the Indian Commissioners and repealing the statutes providing for the latter's appointment was adopted without division.

On motion of Mr. Wellborn, of Texas, an amendment was adopted prohibiting officers or agents of the army or Indian bureau from giving permission to any Indian on any reservation to go into the State of Texas.

Mr. Hooker, of Mississippi, offered an amendment transferring the Indian Bureau from the Interior to the War Department such transfer to take effect at the expiration of the next fiscal year. Pending the discussion of the point of order raised against this amendment the committee rose and the House adjourned until to-morrow.

West Point Cadetship.
Tarboro Southerner.

From our young friend, W. C. Jeffreys, we learn that the Board designated by Hon. W. H. Kitchen to hold a competitive examination of applicants for the West Point cadetship met on Monday at Enfield. The following young men were examined: Messrs. Taylor, of Wilson, Hill, of Halifax, McRae, of Warren, Royal, of Wayne, Huges, of Craven, Jeffreys and Powell, of Edgecombe, and Ward of Warren—eight in number. Mr. Jeffreys speaks in a glowing manner of the hospitable entertainment extended the boys by Spier Whitaker, Esq., a member of the Board.

Since writing the above a telegram from Mr. Whitaker informs us that William Plummer McRae, of Warren, was the successful candidate.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker are exhibiting exquisite and exclusive styles for elegant Carriage, Dinner and Reception costumes, in embroidered cashimeres, hand embroidery. The handsomest goods ever shown in this city.

Genuine Chinese Pongees, all silk with embroidered flouncings. Elegant beauties.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER.

Poverty and Distress.

That poverty which produces the greatest distress is not of the purse but of the blood. Deprived of its richness, it becomes scant and watery, a condition termed anemia in medical writings. Given this condition, and scrofulous swellings and sores, general and nervous debility, loss of flesh and appetite, weak lungs, throat diseases and consumption, are among the common results. Therefore, if you are a sufferer from thin, poor blood, do not hesitate, but employ Golden Medical Discovery which enriches the blood and radically cures those affections by striking at the root of the evil and removing the cause.

For all bronchial, throat, and lung affections, severe lingering cough, weak lungs, consumption in its early stages, asthma and kindred affections, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the soverign remedy, and has outrivaled all its competitors. It is harmless in any condition of the system, yet powerful to cure. Druggists sell it.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker,—Parasols! Parasols!! Spring and Summer parasols and Sunshades are ready in oriental colors, very gay; silk and gold embroidered, painted silk, oil colors; Madras Gingham and Cambric to match suits, etc.

In plain articles also we have a great variety of covers, trimmings, and handles.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER.

Prepare yourself for the severe and sudden changes of climate of winter and spring, by procuring a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

High Commendation.

Gentlemen:—This is to certify that I have examined, analyzed and tested your Dr. Price's Special Flavoring Extracts, and find the same strong, fine, made of good material, and well put up in bottles of full measure. Your fruit coloring is free from any deleterious substance Therefore, I gladly commend the above named products of yours for family use.

Respectfully,
PROF. M. DELAFONTAINE.

DAILY NEWS

SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 1880.

GEO. C JORDAN, Editor and Propr

It is said that Blanton Duncan has deserted the Greenback party. Poor Blanton, he has boxed the political compass. Where is he now?

The Chicago Tribune accuses John Sherman of prevaricating. How many removes is that from down right lying? He takes color from his surroundings, you know. This comes from a mans' being in the wrong pew.

We believe the sooner the Tilden cake is dropped the better. Every day his chances be ome weaker and weaker. We are of those who believe that if Mr. Tilden had have acted wisely he would now be in the Presidential chair.

The New York butter men are getting hot under the collar. They are after the oleomargarinists now. They will move heaven and earth to put the air breaks on its manufacture. The oleomargarinists say to them "you had b(u)etter not."

The Wilmington, Del. Every Evening in speaking of Mr. Tilden says.

Whenever a claim that some state is solid for Tilden is investigated a little it becomes very shaky. Not long ago it was claimed that Georgia was solid for Tilden, and yet there was but one man at the recent meeting of the Democratic state committee for him, and he was only so because he said he did not want people to be able to say that there was not one man in all Georgia "for the old man."

We are glad to learn that the wheat crop throughout the State is looking well. When our farmers fully understand the meaning of diversification of crops, then they will be on the road to success, prosperity and happiness. First of all we should raise everything we eat both for ourselves and stock. To do this we must diversify our crops. It gives us much pleasure to hear of good wheat, corn and hay crops. There is much for our farmers to learn, and on their success depends the prosperity of everybody else.

The Winston Sentinel in speaking of the coming campaign very truly remarks:

The Democrats must nominate a man who can command the undivided and enthusiastic support of his party, and the confidence of the whole country. The Democrats have such men, and if choice should fall on such, his election is an assured fact.

We are in favor of nominating men with clean records. Usually, men that have made the most successful runs are those before but little known. Of such was Lincoln. Hayes, Polk and many others we could name. Make wise nominations and we are safe.

It is our unalterable determination to make no suggestions as to the State ticket, but quietly wait until the Convention in its wisdom selects our standard bearers. We will hold the scales evenly between the aspirants for office, showing favor to no one. We do not think the Convention will choose other than the best men. The News has always stood by the Democratic nominee and always will. Any wavering we consider a blow at party organization. Our policy is to "hew to the line." In unity alone can we hope for success. To win the battle our soldiers must be well deciplined. Let the office seek the man and not vice versa.

HARMONY AT THE CENTRE.

Our esteemed cotemporary but business competitor, the Raleigh Observer says, it cannot support Col. Holt for Governor, because he is in close business connection with the News. We knew there were papers whose advocacy, or opposition, to candidates for nomination was based on the benefit to be derived from such support or opposition by the paper and not as the fitness of the candidate or the will of the party. We did not expect the Observer to so boldly admit such to be its motives in opposing a candidate for the highest place in the gift of the party. Col. Holt is not "in close business relations with the News," and is in no wise connected with its editing or management. But were it otherwise, is it not strange to declare Col. Holt ineligible for the Observer's support because he is connected with the press and in the same issue give countenance to Mr. Kingsbury for Superintendens of Public Instruction upon the same grounds. Probably the idea of the Observer is that the latter office may do for a member of the Press, but the office of Governor is entirely too high. On this theory alone is there consistency in advocating one gentleman and opposing another for the same reason. The Observer seems to invite us to discuss whether or not there is a difference between its being charged as the property of Geo. W. Swepson and its being charged as the organ of Judge Merrimon. We shall not attempt to solve its conundrum. Let Us Have Peace.

Mosley's is the most attractive place to visit in Raleigh. In connection with the confection department, you will find a nice retreat for ladies and gentlemen. A saloon for their special benefit with all the delicacies of the season. A dining saloon. What Raleigh needs and what the good people ought to sustain. You can get oysters served in any style. Birds, Beefsteak, Ham and Eggs, Sausage, Coffee, Ice Cream Cakes, Pies and Milk. All are invited to pay his institution a visit.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

Rev. Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman:—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and the parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button."

And during the process of teething, its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

What a Pity:—Some people spend their money in Sewing Machines that are comparatively worthless, when they can buy the "light running" New Home Machine for sale by J. L. Stone State Agt.

Spring time is coming. Winter clothing will soon be laid aside and their place be supplied with lawns, linens, percales, seersuckers, muslins, linencambrics, etc., etc. W. H. & R. S. Tucker have bought large lines of these goods at the very lowest prices and will dispose of them at a small margin of profit.

Look to your interest, and buy the Light Running "New Home" machine, unsurpassed for its light running, durability, &c. J. L. Stone, State agent Raleigh, N. C.

What a Pity

that the otherwise beautiful girl should have had such bad teeth. And all because she did not use Sozodont. It costs so little to buy it considering the good it does, and its benefits stretch out into her future life. Poor girl!

The cheapest is the best:—The light running New Home Machine, takes the day, it has a solid steel needle bar, steel cam etc. J. L. Stone State Agt., Raleigh, N. C.

Cuticura

REMEDISE

Have Achieved the most noted success of any Medicines of Modern Times.

Messrs. Weeks & Potter have never doubted the specific properties of Cuticura, Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Soap, for the speedy, permanent, and economical cure of Humors of the Blood, Skin and Scalp. They are however, astonished at their universal success; for it was to be expected that in the hands of some they would fail solely from spasmodic or ignorant use of them

They are enabled to say without fear of contradiction that no remedies ever achieved in the short space of one year the number of wonderful cures performed by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

SALT RHUM,

Covering the Body for Ten Years. Permanently Cured.

LAW OFFICE OF CHAS. HOUGHTON,
17 Congress Street, Roston, eb 28, 1878.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I feel it a duty to inform you, and through you all who are interested to know the fact, that a most disagreeable and obstinate case Salt Rheum or Eczema, which has been under my personal observation from its first appearance to the present time,—about ten (10) years,—covering the greater portion of the patient's body, and limbs with its peculiar irritating and itching scab, and to which all the known methods of treating such disease has been applied without benefit, has completely disappeared, leaving a clean and healthy skin, under a few days of profuse application of CUTICURA

I can and do heartily advise all similarly afflicted to try the remedy which has been so effectual in this case.

Very truly yours,
CHAS. HOUGHTON.

Liver Complaint.

And Dyspepsia Treated by the Resolvent, Gains 5 1-2 pounds on One Bottle.

GENTLEMEN,—I have had Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, with running sores on the side of my neck, for ten years Doctors did me good. I have been spending for eight years and it did me no good Everything I ate distressed me. I got reduced from 1.9 to 132 pounds. At last I tried the Resolvent and it helped me right off, and on one bottle I gained five and one-half pounds. It is doing the business, and I am going for it strong. Yours truly,

JOHN H. ROY
414 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill., Nov. 15, 1878.

NOTE.—Cuticura is admirable assisted in cases of extreme physical weakness, or when the virus of Scrofula is known to lurk in the system, by the internal use of the Cuticura Resolvent, without doubt the most powerful blood purifier and liver stimulant in the world.

Cuticura Soap is an elegant toilet and medicinal assistant to Cuticura in the treatment of all external ailments. For chapped hands, rough skin and tan, sunburn, and the lesser skin troubles, it is indispensable; as a soap for the toilet, the nursery and bath it is the most elegant, refreshing, and healing before the public.

These great remedies succeed where all others heretofore in use fail because they possess new and original properties never before successfully combined in medicine.

The Cuticura remedies are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists Price of Cuticura small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small size, Resolvent, per bottle, Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes, 75 cents.

For Sale.

A Rare Chance for Investment.

Wishing to give my whole attention to the lumber trade, in which I am about to engage on a larger scale than ever before, I offer for sale on terms to suit the times the following valuable property in Cary:

I.

MY PLUG TOBACCO FACTORY, in a BRICK building 50x80 feet, 3 stories high, the lower story being two large storerooms. The Tobacco Machinery is new and has a capacity of manufacturing 1,000 lbs. per day. The factory has been worked a year, and a good beginning for a trade has been made. The building and the machinery will be sold together, or separately to suit purchasers.

II.

GRAIN MILLS,

in a 3 story brick building, 28x40 feet. Two Wheat Mills and one Corn Mill, new and complete with a capacity for grinding 100 bushels of wheat and 100 bushels of corn a day, and can compete in quality of flour with any mills in the State. The mills have had a very large local patronage during the past year. They are driven by a 60 HORSE POWER STEAM ENGINE, improved, of the make of Talbott & Sons, Richmond

Attached to the engine is also a 60 Saw CARTTON GIN and power press, at a safe distance (about 100 feet) in a different lot. The engine has a brick smoke-stack 60 feet high, making the danger from fire the least possible and the rate of insurance very low.

III.

Several well built and handsome residences, with lots and gardens of about 1 acre to each dwelling. They are wooden buildings, 2 stories high, with from 5 to 7 rooms each, situated in desirable locations in the village.

Besides these, 4 one acre lots, with cottage buildings of 2 rooms.

TERMS: One third Cash; balance on reasonable time.

Valuable City lot For Sale.

On Tuesday the 4th day of May next, at 12 o'clock, I shall sell at public sale, at the court house door in the city of Raleigh, to the highest bidder, FOR CASH, the valuable lot and two story brick store house that was conveyed to Benjamin F. Harris by Benjamin A. Cheatham and James T. Cheatham, in a mortgage deed bearing date the 31st day of October A. D., 1873, and on record in the office of the Register of Deeds of Wake county said store house is situate on the corner of market square, on Wilmington street, fronting market square, and running though from market square to the next street. It is the store house in which B. F. Cheatham & Bro., (and afterwards John A. Cheatham) did business.

Said house and lot will be sold under a decree of the Superior Court of Wake county, subject to the confirmation of court and no posses ion to be given until the sale of the property is confirmed, and the purchaser complies with the terms of sale. This lot is valuable and buyers of real estate would do well to examine it before the day of sale.

INSURANCE STATEMENTS—J. W. Atkinson.

Theodore Hobgood, Esq., is the authorized General Traveling Agent and Correspondent of the NEWS.

NEWSINGS.

——Cotton has the black eye.

——Col. T. M. Holt is in the city.

——Hot, dry and windy yesterday.

——The baby brigade will soon be out.

——Vote for the Democratic nominees.

——Spring chickens going at 20 cents each.

The Treasurer cancelled $5,000 in old bonds yesterday.

——How would the Georgia uniform do for this weather?

——What's the matter with our street lamps? no lights last night.

——Hanging on front gates and moonshiny nights will soon be here.

——Nothing doing in Mayor's office yesterday, all quiet along the lines.

——J. L. Edwards, Esq., is improving his sidewalk in front of his store on Hargett St.

The Tarboro Southerner advertises for ducks, Several young men around here would like to have a "duck" ——Republicans in 4th Ward has nominated John C. Gorman, James H. Jones and Norfleet Dunston for Aldermen.

——Rev. Dr. Pritchard delivered a lecture in Wilmington a few evenings since. The papers speak highly of his effort.

——The Republicans of the Second Ward last night nominated Joseph Watson, Stewart Ellison and C. W. Hoover for Aldermen.

——The 2nd Quarterly meeting for Person St., church will be held there to-day. The Rev. Dr. N. H. D. Wilson will preach at 11 o'clock.

——The revivals at the Baptist and Methodist churches continue in interest. We are glad to learn that much good is being done. May the good work prosper. Remember "the way of the transgressor is hard."

——The Board of Directors of the Raleigh National Bank held a meeting on Thursday the 15th, at which time Mr. John C. Blake resigned his position as cashier. Mr. Charles H. Belvin was elected cashier yesterday unanimously. Many prominent gentlemen were spoken of for the position. Mr. Belvin deservedly enjoys the entire confidence of our business men.

——Raleigh has as many pretty girls according to its population as any place in the State. They are pretty and witty.—Raleigh NEWS. Trot 'em out. We'll go you them and ten better in this Albemarle county. Name 'em. Will you take a small bet. We don't drink.—Elizabeth City Economist. Wait 'til we can get us a lightning calculator. Cant count 'em without.

——Capt. Rich'd Battle has removed to Raleigh, and formed a connection with the NEWS. The NEWS makes a good bargain, as we hope has Richard. We have heard it whispered that the best half of that wit and humor that sparkles in the Southerner and had given Dossy a national reputation, belongs to Dick.—Elizabeth City Economist. Thanks for kind words, but you'll make a fellow vain.

——Mr. D. T. Johnson of the firm of Johnson & Wiggs met with a serious accident yesterday. About 4 o'clock p. m., he was attending to some business in the third story of his store and sought to return to the first floor by means of the rope that runs the elevator of the house, when the rope gave way and precipitated him to the ground or cellar floor a distance of some forty feet injuring him very severely. He was taken to his house on Hillsboro street, and placed under the care of the doctors who report his injuries to be of a serious character.

——Mr. W. J. Best and his Secretary arrived in the city yesterday from the West. He has employed competent Engineers to make an examination of the Road for the purpose of ascertaining the necessary amount of equipment necessary to put the Road in good working order and they have already entered upon their work. Mr. Best has also purchased from the private stockholders of the Road, the entire private stock of the W. N. C. R. R., Company for which he is to pay $50,000 in cash, and the transfer was ordered to be made by the stockholders at a meeting held at Hickory day before yesterday.

An Infallible Cure for Scrofula.

It is often urged upon the public to patronize home industries, of all kinds. Those which are meritorious will meet with public approval, and especially is this the case with good remedies. One of the worst diseases to cure, and one which has taxed the best remedies and skill, is scrofula. Yet a lady of this State has discovered a medicine which is an infallible cure: The lady is Mrs. Joe Person, of Franklinton, and her Scrofula Remedy is noted for its remedial effects. It has been tested and found to be the best remedy ever discoverd.

Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass

This most excellent remedy is becoming more popular with our people every day. It is one of the few medicines that improves on acquaintance—the more one knows of it, the more its virtues are appreciated. Everybody who has given it a fair trial, speak well of it. Our druggists sell large quantities of it. People are not afraid to use a medicine that they know to be efficient for their ailments, and at the same time harmless in its nature. Read what is so aptly said of it, in another column of this paper. Truth is mighty and will prevail.

Dr. Price's Floral Riches.

This delightful Cologne water is receiving much attention not only from the ladies and gentlemen of refinement and taste, but from professional men generally. It is so gratefully refreshing to the invalid, its odor is so exquisitely delicate and yet so rich and persistent.

NEW GOODS

AT

A. CREECH'S.

JUST IN TIME!
STILL AHEAD!
NEW ARRIVALS!

With just such goods as the people want, and it gives me pleasure to say to thousands of my customers that I have received my spring and Summer stock, which is unusually large and attractive, as each and every department is full from cellar to garret with goods bought by myself in person from the best manufactures and importers in this country.

And allow me to say to you that my Dress Goods Department is well worth your special attention as the assortment is very large and attractive—as it is well filled with goods from low price to fine fabrics, as well as with many new and beautiful styles Dress Goods. Also with Buttons and Trimmings to match.

Piece Goods Department

Is well filled with Cassimers Cashmorets, Tweeds Cottonades and Linen goods, just the goods for spring and summer wear. and will be sold at low prices so as to meet the wants of the people.

My Staple Goods Department

Is in every way complete and no doubt the largest and most complete assortment in the city, and as for selling them at the right prices, Why, I am just the man that does that very thing.

Yankee Notion

And fancy goods department you must not forget, as it is well filled with many new and beautiful goods, that every body wants such as Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Silk and Lace Neck Ties, Gloves, and Silk Mits, Ribbons, Collars and Cuffs, Hamburg Edgings, Parasols, &c.

Infact thousands of indispensible articles, just the goods for the season.

My Shoe Department

Is one of my specialities. Why Creeche's is the place where thousands of people buy shoes, Mens and Boys, Ladies Misses and Children. Buy shoes at Creech's, as they find the style they want, and at the right prices.

My Hat Department

Is all right and well filled with Mens, Boys, and Childrens, Wool, Felt, and Straw Hats, Be sure to call at Creeche's to buy Hats.

Notice to Country Merchants.

My Wholesale Department

Is full and complete, and well filled with just the goods you want, call and see me before you buy, and I will save you money.

And here allow me to say a few words to my friends and customers, I claim that there is no house that can afford to sell or will sell the same class of goods cheaper than I can, for the following reasons, first, that I have been buying goods from the best houses in this country for the last thirty years, and second, because I have no four or five partners to divide profits with, and am perfectly willing to divide profits with my customers, and respectfully ask them to come to Creech's.

"LITTLE GIANT"

HYDRAULIC COTTON PRESS

ITS GREAT POWER.—With it one man can press a bale of cotton of from 400 to 600 pounds in from 6 to 8 minutes' time, and do it with ease.

ITS QUICKNESS.—A man can press a bale in from 6 to 8 minutes' time, and in 1 minute after, the bale is out, the press is ready for the next.

ITS DURABILITY.—There is neither grinding or rubbing in friction its operation, as in the screw press; it is not liable to wear out for want of oil or attention.

ITS SIMPLICITY and the ease which it is operated by ordinary plantation hands; the ease and speed with with which it is put in position for receiving cotton for the next bale, after one has been turned out—the operation consisting in simply turning a cock, which allows the water to flow back to the tub or tank and the bottom or follower block to sink down to its position for receiving the cotton for packing the next bale. A half barrel of water will pack many bales.

ECONOMY OF SPACE. It takes but a small amount of space for its working—8 x 10 feet being abundant room for it to work in.

ITS TOTAL INDEPENDENCY OF ALL SURROUNDING OBJECTS—requiring neither bracing nor expensive foundations, working immediately under the floor of the gin or in the open field.

IT IS THE ONLY PRESS within our knowledge with which one man or boy can press a bale of ordinary size from 400 to 600 pounds; and it is equally adapted to steam, water or horse-power, but for ordinary plantation use we have not found any one who considered it desirable to use power, as the packing is so easily and quickly done by hand, and at so great saving of trouble and expense.

THE CONVENIENCE with which cotton can be put into the box, as there is no obstruction above or about the top of the box to interfere with the operation.

THE POWER being applied in a direct line with the resistance of the cotton packed there is but little friction, and, as a natural consequence, but little wear. We are fully satisfied that our Little Giant Press will outwear any two presses of any other kind in the market. These and many other reasons can be given why the "Little Giant" is not only the best but cheapest press on the market, and we would be glad to have you give it a trial.
